

SET Operators QUES

- Q1. Display the names of all employees from both years using UNION ALL.
- Q2. Display unique employee names from both years using UNION.
- Q3. Display all cities where employees worked in either year without duplicates.
- Q4. Show every department appearing in both tables (including duplicates).
- Q5. Display all salaries from both tables: first with duplicates, then without duplicates.
- Q6. Find employees who worked in both 2024 and 2025 using INTERSECT.
- Q7. Find employees who worked only in 2024 using EXCEPT.
- Q8. Find employees who joined in 2025 only.
- Q9. Find departments present in both years.
- Q10. Find cities that appear in both years.
- Q11. Display employee IDs and names that exist in either year.
- Q12. Display all employee names from both tables in alphabetical order.
- Q13. Find all unique departments across both years.
- Q14. Find cities that exist in 2024 but not in 2025.
- Q15. Find salaries that are common in both tables.
- Q16. Find employees who are present in both years and belong to the IT department.
- Q17. Find departments that disappeared in 2025.
- Q18. Find employees who are new in 2025 and have salary greater than 60,000.
- Q19. Display all employees from both tables with an additional column named year.
- Q20. Find employees who are common in both years, displaying only emp_id, emp_name, and department.